

Private Joan Bosch Foundation Vocational Scholarships at ERAM University School for the Bachelor's Degree in Performing Arts

Call for Applications for the 2027–2028 Academic Year

1. Purpose and Duration

- 1.1. The Joan Bosch Private Foundation, through ERAM University School, is launching the Vocational Scholarship to recognise and support students with a clear vocation for the arts, regardless of their financial circumstances.
- 1.2. The scholarship is exclusively intended for new students commencing the first year of the Bachelor's Degree in Performing Arts in the 2027–2028 academic year.
- 1.3. The scholarship will be awarded for one academic year and will be automatically renewed for subsequent academic years until the completion of the degree, provided that the recipient meets the academic requirements and fulfils the obligations set out in these regulations.
- 1.4. Acceptance of the scholarship entails a commitment by the student to complete 200 hours of educational collaboration with ERAM University School. The terms and conditions of this commitment are detailed in the section entitled Obligations of the Scholarship Recipient.
- 1.5. This scholarship is incompatible with any other scholarship offered by the Joan Bosch Private Foundation. Applicants must choose between this call for applications and the other scholarships offered by the School and may apply for only one of them.

2. Application Period

1. The application period for the 2027–2028 scholarships opens on 26 October 2027 and closes on 7 June 2027.

The Foundation reserves the right to declare certain scholarships unawarded if applicants do not meet the eligibility requirements. In such cases, the scholarships will remain unallocated, and the Joan Bosch Private Foundation shall have no obligation to award them.

3. Financial Award

- 3.1. The scholarship consists of a €1,750 reduction in ERAM's academic tuition fees. The portion of the tuition fees corresponding to the University of Girona (UdG) is excluded from this reduction.

3.2. The student will not receive the awarded scholarship amount directly. Instead, ERAM will manage the necessary administrative procedures to apply the corresponding tuition fee reduction to the scholarship recipient's annual tuition fees.

3.3. Scholarships will be awarded until the available budget has been exhausted, in accordance with the criteria established in these regulations.

3.4. The Foundation reserves the right not to award any scholarships if the applications received fail to meet the eligibility requirements or the required standard.

4. Eligibility Requirements

4.1. Applicants must be currently completing or have completed the second year of the Spanish Baccalaureate (Bachillerato) or a Higher-Level Vocational Training Programme (Ciclo Formativo de Grado Superior, CFGS) that provides access to university studies, or an equivalent qualification within another educational system that grants access to university studies.

4.2. Applicants must list ERAM's Bachelor's Degree in Performing Arts as their first choice on their university pre-enrolment application.

4.3. Applicants must enrol in 60 ECTS credits corresponding to the first year of the relevant degree programme.

4.4. The applicant's financial circumstances shall not be considered an eligibility requirement or an assessment criterion.

5. Selection, Assessment and Awarding Process

5.1. Applications will be assessed through a competitive selection process, with a maximum score of 10 points. Vocational commitment and dedication are given greater weight than academic performance.

Assessment criterion	Maximum points	Assessment criteria
Motivation letter	4	Alignment with the degree programme, personal background and projects, clarity and authenticity
Personal interview	4	Interest in the discipline, attitude and availability to complete the 200 hours of collaboration
Average grade (first year of Bachillerato or CFGS)	2	In accordance with the grading scale set out in Section 5.2

5.2. Escala Grading scale for the average mark:

- From 5 to 6.9: 0.5 points

Escola Universitària de les Arts ERAM

Factoria Cultural Coma Gros
c/ Sant Antoni, 1 - 17190 Salt Girona
Tel. 972 40 22 58
eram@eram.cat
www.eram.cat

- From 7 to 7.5: 1 point
- From 7.6 to 7.9: 1.25 points
- From 8 to 8.9: 1.5 points
- From 9 to 10: 2 points

5.3. In the event of equal scores, the interview score shall prevail.

5.4. The assessment committee shall consist of the person responsible for the scholarship programme, the management of ERAM, and the coordinator of the relevant degree programme.

5.5. The committee shall draw up a ranked list of applicants for each degree programme, based on the scores obtained. Applicants who are not selected but achieve a sufficient score will be placed on a reserve list.

5.6. The outcome of the selection process will be communicated personally to the successful applicants.

5.7. Within ten working days of the award decision, successful applicants must formally accept the scholarship in writing, expressly agreeing to fulfil all obligations arising from this call for applications, its governing regulations, and ERAM's own rules and regulations.

6. Application Procedure and Submission Deadline

6.1. Applicants must submit their applications online using the scholarship application form during the application period, which opens on 26 October 2026, upon publication of this call for applications, and closes on 7 June 2027.

6.2. The application must include the following documents and information:

- Personal details: Completed in the online application form.
- Motivation letter (maximum one page): Applicants must explain why they wish to pursue the degree, their connection with the discipline, and any projects or relevant experience they have undertaken in the field.
- Academic transcript: An official transcript of grades from the first year of the Spanish Baccalaureate (Bachillerato), a Higher-Level Vocational Training Programme (Ciclo Formativo de Grado Superior, CFGS), or an equivalent level of education within another educational system, showing the average grade obtained. If an official transcript is unavailable or does not include the average grade, applicants must submit a certificate issued by their educational institution confirming this information.
- Proof of university pre-enrolment: Documentation confirming that ERAM's degree programme has been listed as the applicant's first choice. This document must be submitted once the Government of Catalonia has opened the university pre-enrolment period.

ERAM reserves the right to cancel an application if any of the documents listed in Section 6.2 are missing or incomplete.

6.3. If the university pre-enrolment process has not yet been completed by the application deadline, applicants must send proof of pre-enrolment to beques@eram.cat by 2 July. Without this proof, the scholarship cannot be awarded.

7. Obligations of the Scholarship Recipient

Recipients of the Vocational Scholarships shall be subject to the following obligations:

7.1. Commitment and Educational Activities. The scholarship recipient undertakes to complete 200 hours of educational collaboration during the 2027–2028 academic year, between September and June, in a manner compatible with their class schedule. Tasks will be assigned at the discretion of the person responsible for the scholarship programme and may include:

- Academic activities: Supporting teaching staff in courses and workshops; assisting in laboratories and studios; and participating in degree-related projects, such as audiovisual productions, performances, fashion shows and exhibitions.
- Support activities: Participating in open days, education fairs, visits to secondary schools and school events; supporting communications and social media activities; and assisting prospective students in the role of an ERAM ambassador.

The purpose of this commitment is to foster learning and the development of skills related to the degree programme being pursued. The person responsible for the scholarship programme will assign the relevant departments, laboratories and tasks, as well as appoint a scholarship tutor.

7.2. Monitoring and Availability. The hours completed will be recorded in the monitoring document provided by ERAM and validated by the scholarship tutor. When required by the needs of the relevant department, the scholarship recipient must be available to work on Saturdays, up to a maximum of one Saturday per month.

7.3. Fulfilment of the Required Commitment. If the 200 required hours have not been completed by the end of the academic year, the scholarship recipient must reimburse the proportionate amount of the tuition fee reduction corresponding to the hours not completed.

7.4. Academic Commitment and Attendance. The scholarship recipient must comply with the training requirements established in the degree curriculum and follow the instructions of their assigned tutor and ERAM teaching staff. They must also pursue their studies in person and maintain a minimum class attendance rate of 70%.

7.5. Compliance with Regulations. The scholarship recipient must comply with all rules and regulations generally applicable to ERAM students.

8. Scholarship Renewal

8.1. To renew the scholarship, the recipient must have passed all subjects in which they were enrolled during the previous academic year. Failure to pass one or more subjects will result in the loss of eligibility for scholarship renewal, except where the failure is due to duly justified force majeure circumstances that have been accepted by ERAM.

8.2. In academic years subsequent to the first year, if the recipient enrolls in fewer than 60 ECTS credits, both the scholarship tuition fee reduction and the required collaboration hours will be adjusted proportionally to the number of credits enrolled in, in accordance with the criteria established in these regulations.

8.3. If, at the end of the academic year, the recipient has not completed all the required collaboration hours, they must reimburse ERAM for the proportionate amount of the scholarship corresponding to the hours not completed.

9. Obligations, Withdrawal, and Revocation

9.1. Obligations of the Scholarship Recipient

- Complete the 200 hours of collaboration and follow the instructions of their assigned tutor.
- Attend classes in person, maintaining a minimum attendance rate of 70%.
- Remain enrolled in 60 ECTS credits throughout the first academic year.
- Comply with ERAM's general rules and regulations.

9.2. Any withdrawal from the scholarship must be formally communicated in writing to beques@eram.cat. ERAM will review and verify the collaboration hours actually completed by the recipient up to the date of withdrawal, based on the monitoring record validated by the scholarship tutor.

If the recipient has not completed all the required collaboration hours, they must reimburse ERAM for the proportionate amount of the tuition fee reduction corresponding to the hours not completed.

9.3. ERAM may revoke the scholarship and require repayment of the amount awarded in cases involving false or misleading documentation, withdrawal from the degree programme, a serious breach of the recipient's obligations, or an unfavourable report from the scholarship tutor.

10. Data Protection and Acceptance of the Terms and Conditions

10.1. ERAM University School processes applicants' personal data in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation, GDPR) and Spanish Organic Law 3/2018 on Personal Data Protection and the Guarantee of Digital Rights (LOPDGDD). The data are processed solely for the purposes of administering the scholarship application process, awarding scholarships and monitoring their implementation.

10.2. ERAM University School complies with the applicable legislation on personal data protection and is committed to maintaining the confidentiality of all information provided. Personal data relating to scholarship applicants contained in documents associated with these scholarships will be incorporated into ERAM's database. This information will be used to provide applicants with the services required by ERAM to administer the application process, award and manage the salary scholarships

10.3. All personal data provided by applicants must be accurate, complete and up to date.

11. Additional Provisions

11.1. Submitting an application for these scholarships constitutes the applicant's express acceptance of both the governing terms and conditions and the criteria and decisions adopted by ERAM in resolving any questions concerning the interpretation of the requirements and conditions set out herein.

11.2. The applicant expressly acknowledges the full validity of the records and electronic and digital communications systems managed by ERAM as admissible evidence in the event of any claims relating to the application, selection, awarding, refusal or use of the scholarships.

11.3. ERAM reserves the right to cancel this call for applications or amend any of its conditions if technical difficulties or other circumstances beyond its control prevent the process from proceeding as intended in accordance with these regulations.

11.4. ERAM may also declare this call for applications void if irregularities are detected in applicants' identifying information.

11.5. ERAM will reject any applications deemed abusive or fraudulent.